Address
Flanders Road
East Ham
E6 6FE

Client
London Borough of Newham

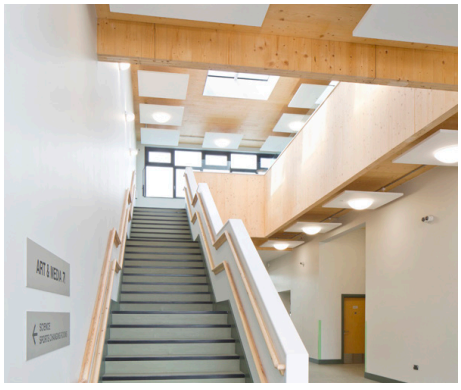
Architect
Riivington Street Studio

Form of Contract
JCT Design and Build 2016

Contract Value
£10.2m

Eleanor Smith School (EKO Pathways)
SEMH Education/CLT

Eleanor Smith School (EKO Pathways) is a special educational needs school in the London Borough of Newham. It caters for children and young people with social, emotional and mental health difficulties (SEMH).

This new build site provides the School with a brand-new facilities including; sports hall, kitchens, science laboratories, sound studios and MUGA constructed on a brownfield site in East Ham.


The new building has been constructed in cross laminated timber (CLT), and provide sgenerous, flexible classrooms and specialist teaching resource areas, with break-out spaces and extensive external landscaping.